

Tamara Clark

Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer

Tamara Clark is the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for the United Women in Faith national office. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in accounting from Temple University. She is a certified public accountant licensed in the state of Pennsylvania, and a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the National Association of Black Accountants.

Prior to joining the executive leadership of United Women in Faith, Tamara served as the Treasurer/Director of Administration of the Wisconsin Annual Conference of the UMC. Before then she was Accountant for the Eastern PA Conference of the UMC. And prior to then she worked for Lopez and Company accounting firm in Philadelphia, PA.

Tamara is a lifelong member of Mid-Town Parish UMC in Philadelphia, PA, serving as volunteer Treasurer for their Kensill Fund for Hope Scholarship Committee. She also volunteers on the investment committee of the General Council on Finance & Administration of the UMC and occasionally teaches financial literacy workshops in church and community organizations.

www.uwfaith.org